European Junior Curling Tour - Oslo 2017

OSLO CURLING CLUB INVITES YOU TO THE INTERNATIONAL
JUNIOR BONSPIEL IN SNARØYA CURLING ARENA 20 - 22 OCTOBER

European Junior Curling Tour - Oslo 2017

OPEN FOR
12 Girls teams and 12 Boys teams

Girls and boys teams will play in separate tournaments as follows:

The Tournament is played according to the World Curling Federation rules and applying the four-rock rule. All matches are played over 8 ends with an extra end if necessary. If no points are scored in the extra end the teams will play one shot to the button for the match.

The teams will play a round robin in 2 groups of 6 teams, and the three highest ranked teams in each group are qualified for the play off. The number of wins and internal results will decide the ranking. If unable to separate teams using this method the average of LSD results will be used. In case of elimination from the tournament one round of tie-breaker games will be played according to WCF rules.

The second ranked team from one group plays the third ranked team from the other group in 2 quarterfinals, and the winners play the first ranked team from the group including the third ranked team in the semifinals.

The losing teams in the quarterfinals are ranked according to the LSD results only.

The losing teams in the semifinals will play a match for third position.

Prize money will be awarded to the 4 teams reaching the play off, with a total purse of NOK 25.000,- for each group as follows:

1st	10.000,-	10 points
2nd	7.500,-	8 points
3rd	5.000,-	6 points
4th	2.500,-	5 points
5th		4 points
6th		3 points
7-12		1 point

To win the EJCT a team have to play at least two of the tournaments that season, and the team with most points is the winner of the tour. LSD average result recorded from all events will be used to separate the teams. The winners of the junior tour season will be invited to play at selected WCT-E events next season.

The entry fee is NOK 2.000,- pr. team, and will include all meals, including banquet Saturday evening. Entries must be received before August 31st and confirmed by paying the entry fee before September 15th to our bank account # 6039 05 82466 (Details for payment attached)
